Academic Requirements for Admission to the WVU School of Dentistry

1. Applicant must have a minimum of 3 years of college-level work (90 hours or higher)

2. College work must include:
   - English Composition and Rhetoric – 6 hours
   - Biology or Zoology with labs – 8 hours
   - General Chemistry with labs – 8 hours
   - Organic Chemistry with labs – 8 hours
   - Physics with labs – 8 hours

   Beginning with the 2014 entering class of dental students, a minimum of three semester credit hours in biochemistry and comparative or human anatomy will be required.

   Additional recommended course work: Biochemistry, Cell and Molecular Biology, Anatomy and Physiology, Microbiology, Embryology, Genetics, and Psychology

3. Applicant must take the Dental Admission Test (DAT)